

LOOKING BEYOND

Newsletter 2011

To all the children
we try to reach:

*“You are valuable
because you exist.
Not because of what you do or what you have done,
But simply because you are.”*

- Max Lucado

Looking Beyond

February 2011

It's that time of year again when we get to touch base with our friends and supporters.

Last year, due to your generosity, we had yet another substantial fundraiser benefiting many local programs and services for children with disabilities and we are planning to do the same in 2011.

This year, we look forward to a night of fabulous fun with a tournament style poker evening. Ladies, there are plenty of other activities for you too! As always, we will have our amazing live and silent auctions, and raffle with extraordinary prizes to keep the night's excitement going...

This is sure to be another memorable Looking Beyond event. So, please come and join us and make a difference in a child's life.

A Glimpse into Last Year

Last year was another remarkable year of awareness and fundraising at our annual sold-out luncheon gala.

Our honoree, Sourena Vasseghi, was a true example of a person who has broken the limits set by his disabilities. Born with cerebral palsy (CP), Sourena has a severe speech impediment. But this has not stopped him from pursuing his dreams. He graduated from USC in May 2001 and opened his own marketing firm. Sourena is also a touring motivational speaker as well as the author of top selling book Love Your Life and It will Love You Back. Currently he writes a blog called "Random Thoughts from the Chair".

Sourena left our audience deeply touched and inspired!
